and independent contractors.

Disability Insurance Elective Coverage

A Financial Safety Net

We offer an optional Disability Insurance Elective Coverage \(DIEC\) program for people who:

- Do not pay into State Disability Insurance (SDI) but want to be covered by disability and Paid Family Leave (PFL).
- Anyone who receives a major part of their income from their self-employment or business can choose to be covered by DIEC.

DIEC protects small-business owners, entrepreneurs, independent contractors, or self-employed people who make up a large part of companies doing business in California.

What are my DIEC benefits?

- Protection against a loss of income due to injury, pregnancy, or illness whether or not it is work-related.
- Up to 39 weeks of benefits for your own disability.
- Automatic coverage in PFL, which provides up to eight weeks of benefits to:
  - Care for a seriously ill family member.
  - Bond with a new child.
  - Participate in a qualifying military event.

The amount paid to you is based on your answers on the Internal Revenue Service's Form 1040 (Schedule SE or Schedule C).

Am I eligible for DIEC?

To be eligible, you must:

- Own your own business, be self-employed, or work as an independent contractor.
- Have a minimum net profit of $4,600 annually.
- Have a valid license, if required by your job.
- Be working full-time and doing all your regular duties at the time you submit your application.
- Receive the major portion of your income from your trade, business, or job as an independent contractor.
- Your business cannot be seasonal.
- Stay in the program for two complete calendar years unless you discontinue your business or move out of California.
