Have you ever had to let someone go?

If so, did you receive a Notice of Unemployment Insurance Claim Filed (DE 1101CZ) from the Employment Development Department (EDD)?

You can now receive and respond to this notice electronically by using the State Information Data Exchange System (SIDES).
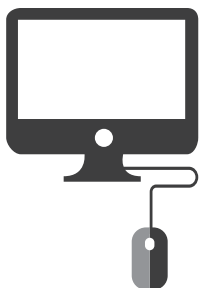

Benefits and Features of SIDES:

- Saves time, administrative costs, and mailing expenses.

- Reduces improper payments.

- Reduces errors common with paper forms.

- Transmits confidential information securely.

- Sends notifications faster, allowing more time to gather information.

SIDES

There are two ways to participate in SIDES designed to meet your business needs!
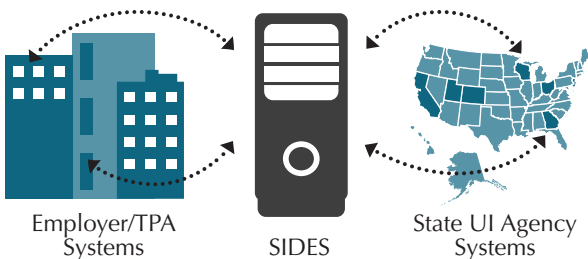

SIDES E-Response

For employers and third party administrators (TPAs) with a lower volume of Unemployment Insurance (UI) claims and does not require any special programming or software.

SIDES Web Service

For employers and TPAs with a higher volume of UI claims or those who operate in multiple states.
